VELVETEEN SYNOPSIS

Celebrating its 100th anniversary, The Velveteen Rabbit is a story of the love and loss between a child and a cherished toy. Watch as a stuffed bunny becomes the gift of a boy's lifetime, and how the love she receives transforms her into something more than velvet and seams. Director Ron Soja, arranger Josh Greene, and choreographers Greg Bussiere and April James bring this story to life in a performance that will immerse you in your childhood, asking, "Do You Remember?" Join Daniel Hand VIBE in the recreation of this classic tale as they explore the color of life, what we were made for, and what it means to be real.
